FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Malvern, Radnor and Haverford all captured their division titles as the Inter-County Scholastic Hockey League's regular season came to a close this week.

Malvern, 16-2-0, won their two starts, defeating defending champion Archbishop Carroll, 5-3, despite three goals for Scott Chamness of Carroll, to capture the Division I crown. The Friars then shut out West Catholic, 5-0, on two-goal performances by Scott Ianelli and Albert Washco.

Radnor, 16-1-1 and possessors of the best record in the league, captured the division II crown by defeating Unionville, 12-4 and tying Haverford, 3-3.

Haverford, the Division III champion, defeated Springfield, 2-0, behind the strong goaltending of Chris Cifone in their other start.

In other action, Archbishop Carroll qualified as the wild card team in the league's playoff structure, as they defeated rival West Chester, 6-0. In the game, Scott Chamness scored four goals to bring his regular season career varsity total to 271, and finish the season with 69. Ninth grader Jeff Arnold scored the two other Carroll goals. Monsignor Bonner won their last two games of the season defeating St. James, 9-6, and Ridley, 6-3. Chestnut Hill's John Nelson made 26 saves as the Hillers blanked Neumann, 4-0; Chuck Bolnick posted the shutout as Marple-Newtown stopped Downingtown, 5-0; so did Dave Erich as Penncrest squeaked by Ridley, 1-0.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Radnor, Malvern, Haverford and defending champion Archbishop Carroll all won their Inter-County Scholastic Hockey League quarterfinal rounds in two straight games this week to advance to the league's semifinals that will begin Monday, February 25, 7:30 p.m. at the Havertown Skatium.

Malvern will play Haverford at 7:30 p.m., with Radnor and Carroll clashing at 9:15 p.m. The second game of the two best of three series will be on Thursday, February 28, with Radnor and Carroll in the first tilt and Haverford meeting Malvern in the second.

Radnor, champions of Division II, advanced by defeating Unionville by scores of 10-5 and 7-2. Malvern, the top team in Division I, downed Lower Merion by scores of 5-2 and 7-1. Haverford, best in Division III in the regular season, shut-out Monsignor Bonner in both contests, 10-0 and 4-0. Archbishop Carroll, who posted the fourth best regular season record, handled West Chester 5-4 and 8-5.

Top individual efforts in the playoffs were turned in by Haverford's goaltender Chris Cifone who posted back to back shutouts over Bonner; Malvern's Chris Lerro scored three goals in the 7-1 win over Lower Merion; Scott Chamness of Carroll scored two goals in both wins over West Chester.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Malvern has become the first team to advance to the Flyers Cup as the Friars advanced to the final round of the Inter-County Scholastic Hockey League's playoffs, with two overtime wins over Haverford, 3-2, and 5-4.

In the 3-2 win, Malvern's Scott Ianelli scored the game winner 1:53 into sudden-death overtime. The 5-4 contest was won on Alan Cobb's point-blank slap-shot 7:02 in the overtime.

The Archbishop Carroll-Radnor series is knotted at one win apiece. Carroll won the first contest, 8-6, as Scott Chamness scored four goals and Jeff Arnold tallied three times for the defending champion Patriots. Bill Brazer scored three times for Radnor.

It was a little different story the next time out with Radnor winning, 4-2, as the Raider's Grove Smith scored the game winner midway through the third period.

Carroll and Radnor will meet in the third and deciding game, Monday, 7:30 p.m. at the Skatium in Havertown.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Two out of three Inter-County Scholastic Hockey League division leaders had a big week while the third had their worst of the season.

Malvern, tops in Division One, and Radnor, best in Division Two, won both their starts. Haverford the leader in Division Three, however, had a rocky road, losing and tying.

Malvern destroyed Upper Merion 17-0 and outplayed Cardinal O'Hara, 5-1, to increase their record to 14-2-0.

Radnor, possessors of the best record in the 23 team loop, 15-1-0, stopped Conestoga, 4-1, and Swarthmore, 5-2.

Haverford, now 13-2-1, was stunned by Monsignor Bonner, 3-2, on John Nardone's winning goal and was tied by Marple-Newtown, 3-3. Haverford leads O'Hara by only two points.

In other action, Archbishop Carroll registered two big wins defeating Methacton, 12-1, and shutting out Conestoga, 11-0, as Scott Chamness scored ten goals in the two games, and also garnered four assists against Conestoga; West Chester's Bill Looft scored three goals in the win over Swarthmore, 9-2; Bob Giordano tallied three goals for O'Hara as the Lions outscored St. James, 8-5; and West Catholic's Rick Scully scored six goals as the Burrs' edged St. James, 9-7, in a shoot 'em up.

NEWS

789 Lancaster Avenue • Villanova, Pa. 19085 • (215) 525-6430

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Malvern, Radnor, and Haverford all won their games this past week to continue to remain the leaders in their respective divisions in the Inter-County Scholastic Hockey League.

Malvern won their two starts 5-0 over Methacton and 6-2 over Central to increase their record to 11-1-0 as they continue to lead Chestnut Hill by three points in Division I.

Radnor won its only start downing West Catholic 5-3 to beef up their record to 11-1-0 and lead division II by a slim one point over Archbishop Carroll.

Carroll won their two starts this week outscoring Downingtown 15-5 and O'Hara 8-2.

Carroll's Scott Chamness scored his 250th high school goal (64 league games) against O'Hara after scoring six goals and adding four assists against Downingtown.

Haverford tops division III with a perfect 12-0-0 log. This past week the Fords downed St. James 6-1 and came from behind to defeat West Catholic 6-5, as Rob Welch scored his second goal of the game, to keep their record intact.

In other highlights, Unionville's Brian Miller had back to back four goal games as they downed Conestoga 11-5 and tied Swarthmore 8-8; Dave Price scored three goals as Conestoga topped Upper Merion 8-3.

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The story is still the same as the Inter-County Scholastic Hockey League goes into their next to last week of regular season play.

The leaders this week, like last week, are the same; Malvern, Radnor and Haverford.

Malvern, leaders of Division I with a 12-2-0 record were handed their second loss of the season as they were upset by Chestnut Hill , 5-3, on John Barroll's hat trick for the Hillers. Malvern responded later in the week with a resounding 5-2 victory over Neumann.

In Division II, Radnor increased their record 13-1-0 with two wins this past week. First, they defeated Downingtown 12-1, and stunned West Chester, 5-3, as Jay Wick scored three goals.

Haverford, though upset by O'Hara, 4-3, remains the leader in Division III with a 13-1-0 log.

In other highlights, O'Hara's Steve McHugh scored three goals as the Cardinals downed Lower Merion, 7-1; Carroll's Scott Chamness scored three straight goals as the Patriots bested Lower Merion, 3-1; Jim Pilla scored three goals and added two assits for Neumann in an 11-2 romping over Upper Merion. Unionville's Brian Miller scored five goals against Upper Merion.
